

The Friends of St. Joseph State Parks invite you to attend

FLORIDA STATEHOOD DAY

Saturday, February 27, 2016

11:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m. ET

Constitution Convention Museum State Park

Considered one of the most important events in the history of Florida, the First Constitution Convention, held in the Old City of St. Joseph, would influence the destiny of both our city and our state. Come join us to learn more about the exciting story of how a young booming town, a persuasive newspaper editor, and a pioneering delegation helped forge the path to 171 years of Florida Statehood!

- All day Open House at the Constitution Convention Museum starting at 9 a.m. (free admission!)
 - Live music by Fish Lips!
 - Celebration speeches!
 - Food and drinks for purchase from The Sand Bucket!
- Bring your lawn chairs and picnic blankets and enjoy the day of festivities!

Looking for an extra credit opportunity for students? Have them bring their event wristbands as proof of attendance for bonus points!
